Linseed and Lard Oils are no longer drawn from the East for the supplies of the West and South. The Crueinatt Gazette states that there are five Lauseed Oil Mills in that city, and another in course of erection. They are capable of making in the aggregate 900 gallons of oil per day. Cincinnati supplies the whole West, including New-Orleans and Mobile, with the article. The manufacture of Linseed Oil for export is a new business in the West. It is only a few years since it was obtained from the East in large quantities for Western consumption. In may be stated in this connection that there are twenty-two establishments in Cincinnati which movuling ture twenty-two establishments in Cincinnati which movuling the gallon. The product fram Lard in winter is one third claimed two-thands sterine; in summer the proportions are exactly received. In the post sensor, the oil is made directly from the lore, the whole of which is used for the purpose, except he highs and shoulders. ASHES—The market is quiet, and the tales are small at previous prices. About 40 bils Pots were taken at $4.00, and about 50 bils Pearls at 418%, a 42%.

COTTON—The sales are to-day some 1200 bales, showing no marked change in prices. Some factors report the market as firm, while others look upon it as a trifle easier for the buy-et. The transactions are nearly all for shipment.

FLOUR AND MEAL—The navigation on the canals is no doubt closed, as ne bonts arrived yesterday either at Albany or Troy. The navigation closed last year about a week later.—The narket has not been effected by this event, and it is of less importance than usual, as the freight privilers given to the Litera and Schenectady, Railroad by the last Legislature permits the merchandrize caught by the last Legislature permits the merchandrize caught by the last Legislature permits the merchandrize caught by the closing of the canals, to come forward. The market is dull to day, and we quote West. em at 4285; a 469, with small demand. The weather has had probably some effect in producing this duliess, It is rather a remarkable conneidence that Flour was $4.81 last year at the close of navigation. The stock here now is considered considably smaller than at this time last year. In round hoop there is very little doors. It is nominally $4.62%, in Southern the transactions are left and the market benzy at $3.02, a 47% Flour was $3.25 a, the latter for prime, and 2.50 for oid. Ship Stuffia are 10% a 11, and dult.
